

TWO LAYMEN COMPLETE THE LAY LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE CURRICULUM

Roger Kropuenske (left) and Clint Bartel of Mount Calvary, Huron, recently completed all eleven classes in the District's Lay Leadership Institute (LLI), giving them more training to assist their pastor. Pastor Kevin Koester is their pastor. Roger and Clint are pictured here with District President Sailer, who presented the LLI certificates at the Mount Calvary Voters' Meeting on Tuesday, January 30.

Pastors and DCEs in the District provide the instruction for the classes offered through LLI. Anyone may attend the classes, but those enrolled in "Level III," as Roger and Clint were, receive the pastor's assistant certification. Go to the LCMS South Dakota District website, Mission and Ministry tab, for more information on LLI:
